

SEAFARERS MEMORIAL GROUP and The Fishermen's Mission

National Fishing Remembrance Day

Sunday 12th of May 2024

- 13:45 Participants assemble.
- 13:55 Colour's from RNLI, Merchant Navy Association and Royal British Legion piped into the memorial to "Seafarers Memorial" written by Ivor Mackay.
- 14:00 Seafarers Memorial Chairman, Willie Watt to call event to order and deliver opening speech.
- 14:07 Seafarers Memorial Patron, Skipper Andrew Bremner to speak on behalf of the Fishing Industry
- 14:15 Fishermen's Mission Port Officer for Caithness, Jackie Dodds will deliver background to the day, prayers, blessing and reflection.
- 14:30 Two minutes silence will begin.
- 14:32 Piper to play "Floo'ers o' the Forest" - Edward Atkins to lay wreath on behalf of the Fishing Industry.
- 14:35 Jenny Szyfelbain to recite the poem by Toni and Frankie Mulhearn "The Price of Fish is Very Dear"
- 14:38 Colour Party to carry Colours and Piper to lead Colour Party away from Memorial and stand down.
- 14:40 WW to close event.
- 14:45 Event Close

Note that all timings are approximate.

